

Name: _____ Location/Dept: _____ Date: _____

1. What is the intent of HIPAA?

- a) To protect the privacy and security of a consumer's health information
- b) To provide for electronic and physical security of a consumer's health information
- c) Prevent health care fraud and abuse
- d) All of the above

2. When can you use or disclose PHI?

- a) For the treatment of a consumer (if part of my job)
- b) For obtaining payment for services (if part of my job)
- c) When the consumer has authorized, in writing, its release
- d) All of the above

3. How does a FCC consumer learn about privacy under HIPAA?

- a) He looks it up on www.fccmo.org
- b) He asks his counselor for the information
- c) At his first visit he is given the Provider's Notice of Privacy Practices, and signs an acknowledgement that he has received a copy of it
- d) The Government mailed this to every U.S. Citizen prior to April 14, 2003

4. Who at FCC has to follow HIPAA Law?

- a) Every FCC employee
- b) Therapists and case managers only
- c) Only the FCC employees who provide management, administrative, financial, or operational support

5. May you fax a consumer's Protected Health Information?

- a) Yes, if you use a cover sheet containing a Confidentiality Statement and have confirmed the fax # is correct
- b) Faxing PHI is never appropriate

6. What should you do if you know that a client's PHI has been leaked to an unauthorized party?

- a) Report it to the newspaper
- b) Call the consumer at home and report it to him
- c) Report it to your supervisor or the Privacy Official
- d) Nothing

7. How do I protect our clients' PHI from unauthorized individuals?

- a) Log off computer terminals and/or have password-protected screen-savers
- b) Don't give out your computer log-on and/or password to anybody
- c) Position printers and computer terminals so that information is not accessible to or viewable by unauthorized viewers
- d) All of the above

8. Who is it appropriate to release client information to?

- a) The consumer's brother
- b) FCC staff—consumer transfer from site to site
- c) A former FCC employee
- d) Local media

9. If a person has the ability to access FCC computers systems, they have the right to view any information in the system?

- a) True
- b) False

10. While working in CIMOR, you see the name of a relative; curious, you select the relative to look at their assessments. Which of the following could happen?

- a) You could lose your job
- b) be fined
- c) Face criminal charges
- d) a, b, and c

11. It is safe to send PHI in an email sent from your FCC email account.

- a) True
- b) False

12. A good place to hide my username and password is under the keyboard.

- a) True
- b) False

13. I get an email from my supervisor with the attachment "cutehamster.exe", I should:

- a) Trigger the silent alarm
- b) Delete it
- c) Forward it to all my friends
- d) All of the above

14. HIPAA stands for:

- a) Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act
- b) Health Information and Privacy Alert Act
- c) Hippos Inform People About Antelopes
- d) Health Information Privacy and Accountability Act

15. What is PHI?

- a) Protected Health Information
- b) Personal Health Info
- c) Private Health Investigator
- d) Phreaky Ham Incident

16. According to the HIPAA presentation, what is significant about the year 2014?

- a) Healthcare providers will be required to have LCDs or flat screens at all workstations
- b) All healthcare providers to implement EMRs by 2014
- c) The world will end in 2012, so 2014 is irrelevant
- d) The sum of all the numbers is 7

17. It is ok to leave my computer unattended & unlocked while logged in as long as I'm back in less than 10 minutes:

- a) True
- b) False